THE GUJARAT PANCHAYATS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1974

No. 8 of 1974

Enacted by the President in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Republic of India.

An Act further to amend the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961.

11 of 1974.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Gujarat State

Provided that if the State Government is of the opinion that it is necessary so to do, it may, by order and for reasons to be mentioned therein, extend, from time to time, the period so specified; so, however, that the notification shall not in any case remain in force for more than one year in the aggregate.

(3) On the issue of a notification under sub-section (1) in relation to any panchayat,—

(a) all the members of such panchayat shall vacate their office as such members;

(b) all the powers and duties of such panchayat shall, during the period when such notification is in force, be exercised and performed by such officer of the State Government as it may, by order, specify in that behalf.

(4) The State Government shall, before the expiry of the period specified in the notification issued under sub-section (1) or extended under the proviso to sub-section (2), as the case may be, take steps for the purpose of reconstituting the panchayat in the manner provided in this Act.”.

V. V. GIRI.
President.

K. K. SUNDARAM,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Reasons for the enactment

The extended terms of the present Taluka and District Panchayats in the State of Gujarat expire on 31st March, 1974. These panchayats have been functioning for more than one year after the expiry of their normal term of five years. However, the recent disturbances in the State have created an atmosphere which is congenial neither to the continuance of these panchayats for a further period nor for holding elections for their reconstitution. It is, therefore, considered necessary to entrust the administration of these panchayats temporarily to officers appointed by the State Government. There is, however, no provision in the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961, enabling the State Government to take such action in situations created by such or other special circumstances. The present measure seeks to amend the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961, so as to empower the State Government to appoint officers for carrying on the administration of the affairs of panchayats in certain special circumstances.

2. In view of the urgency of the matter, it is not practicable to consult the Consultative Committee of Parliament on Gujarat Legislation. This measure is accordingly being enacted without reference to the Consultative Committee.

Development and Co-operation).*
